

Home / Topics / Paranormal / Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson Airport Halts Flights Due to UFO Sighting

Atlanta's Hartsfield-Jackson Airport Halts Flights Due to UFO Sighting

Pilots Report Unidentified Object Near Runway

BY: JAMES ANDERSON

UPDATED: SEPTEMBER 18 2023 | ORIGINAL: MARCH 25, 2021

In an unprecedented incident, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport temporarily halted all flights after multiple pilots reported seeing an unidentified flying object near the runway. The object, described as a metallic disc, hovered at a low altitude before speeding off at an incredible velocity. Airport authorities and the FAA are investigating the sighting, which has raised concerns about airspace security. In an unprecedented incident, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport temporarily halted all flights after multiple pilots reported seeing an unidentified flying object near the runway. The object, described as a metallic disc, hovered at a low altitude before speeding off at an incredible velocity. Airport authorities and the FAA are investigating the sighting, which has raised concerns about airspace security. In an unprecedented incident, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport temporarily halted all flights after multiple pilots reported seeing an unidentified flying object near the runway.

The object, described as a metallic disc, hovered at a low altitude before speeding off at an incredible velocity. Airport authorities and the FAA are investigating the sighting, which has raised concerns about airspace security.

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport temporarily halted all flights after multiple pilots reported seeing an unidentified flying object near the runway. The object, described as a metallic disc, hovered at a low altitude before speeding off at an incredible velocity. Airport authorities and the FAA are investigating the sighting, which has raised concerns about airspace security.